Lake Tahoe, CA

February 18th–25th 2012

$1,375 Per Person / Double Occupancy

Kirkwood

Besides being America's most versatile resort, Lake Tahoe is credited as being one of the most beautiful sites in North America. World-class skiing, dining, luxury amenities and a sense of old-west style has also become a Tahoe trademark. Groups will love it! Ski one or a few of Lake Tahoe's Fifteen resorts—each with its own personality and varying terrain. Great nightlife (24-Hour Casino Gaming!), incredible scenery, sunny, blue-sky ski days and a friendly attitude make Tahoe a perfect place for a complete ski trip!

Each year, Tahoe boasts of a snow base exceeding 100 inches and often over 200 inches. With that kind of snow and the legendary Tahoe sunshine, it's no wonder Lake Tahoe is considered one of the top skier destinations in North America!

Our trip is designed to avoid the crowds with mid-week skiing!

After a day of skiing or snowboarding in the mountains, you and your family can relax in a hotel room with mountain or lake view. The private bedroom features one king or two double beds, a bathroom stocked with soaps, shampoo, plush towels and a hairdryer.

Enjoy the resort reception, including all of your favorite beverages. Dine in the many restaurants, comfortable pool, soak in our whirlpool, visit our fitness center, or enjoy the many other hotel facilities.

- $1,375 per person – Double Occ. – King bed room
- Call trip leaders for single rates & child rates

The Skiing

Huge vertical, staggering views and slightly tamer terrain combine to make Heavenly a more popular intermediate choice than some of its neighbors. With over 10,000 vertical feet (the highest in the Tahoe region) and 4,800 skiable acres, there is plenty of terrain to choose from, regardless of skill level. Kirkwood is a standout in terms of natural beauty and terrain variety, with everything from the greenest greens to hair-raising chutes and cornices. With 45% of terrain rated intermediate and 30% advanced
